

A close-up portrait of a woman with dark hair, wearing a white top. She is holding her right hand up to her face, partially covering her eyes. She is wearing a large, oval-shaped green gemstone ring with a gold band on her ring finger. On her wrist is a gold chain bracelet with a repeating knot or link design. In her ear is a small gold hoop earring with a green gemstone drop. A multi-strand necklace with green gemstones and gold links is visible around her neck. The background is a plain, light color.
